III. OATH OF OFFICE, CODE OF ETHICS, CODE OF CONDUCT

Board Members Mike Lee, Cindy Pratt, and Rob Schuler, were administered the Oath of Office. The Oath of Office will be administered to Allison McIntyre at the January meeting. The board continued to discuss briefly the code of Ethics and Conduct documents that have been signed by Schuler, Foutz and Lee. Both Pratt and McIntyre want to offer edits for consideration at a future meeting.

IV. RESIDENT COMMENTS

Resident Carol Evans advised that the board needs to improve communications so that more homeowners will attend meetings. She believes few residents look on the website, Facebook or Nextdoor. She suggested communications like email blasts would be more effective. The board thanked her for the suggestions and will add that to a future communication plan.

V. CLARK CONDON LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS presentation.

Sheila Condon, a principle in the landscape company presented an overview of the several projects the company has completed and the company’s approach to working with clients seeking landscape consultation. The firm has prepared a proposal for the Board that could be combined with a proposal they have given to MUD #7 to address the erosion problems at the Kroger Lake area. Their approach is to provide recommendations for refurbishments and improvements to the public areas of the community. The board agreed to discuss the assessment proposal at a workshop in February 2020. The proposal received by R. Schuler will be distributed for review prior to the workshop.

VI. FINANCIAL REPORTS presented by Canady & Canady accounting firm.

Crystal Chang presented the financial statements which comprised the balance sheet as of October 31, 2019 and related profit and loss, an income statement and aged payables, as well as confidential delinquencies for board review. After discussion the report was accepted. At the close of the discussion Ms. McIntyre volunteered that she would be forwarding a spreadsheet named “Ready for 209’s” that she created to assist in the reconciliation process. Ms. Chang also gave an overview of the services that they are providing. Additionally, Board advised that it has now improved the amount of information that a vendor is required to provide to the bookkeeper prior to payment of invoice to insure more accountability prior to payment. Additionally, Cindy Pratt will contact the Accounting firm to recommend alternate report formats.
